

Flavors of San Juan Food & Culture Tours

Your Flavors of San Juan Food & Culture tour guide will lead you on an easy 2-hour walk through the 16th century Spanish colonial city streets of Old San Juan, sharing with you savory signature items of the top restaurants on the islet and inside knowledge only a local can provide.

Our dinner sample tour includes five tasting locations, providing generous samples of food and drink along the way. Pair a healthy serving of locally made foods and beverages that will awaken your palate, with a dollop of animated stories and history of this 300+ year old landmark city – all without breaking your bank or your time budget – and you've got an unforgettable experience!

Come join us as we walk, talk and taste our way through Old San Juan!

If you enjoy sampling delicious specialties from culinary landmarks and hearing interesting historical tales, this tour is for you.

We start off by foot in Plaza Colón at the entrance of Old San Juan, a charming city dating back to the 1500s that is home to unique blue cobble-stoned streets, breathtaking Spanish and French architecture and some of the best restaurants on the island.

The city will come alive before your eyes as you immerse yourself in the history and culture of the Old City. In between stories of pirates and castles, enjoy generous samples of signature dishes from some of the most flavorful and local spots that are sure to tantalize your taste buds and satisfy your appetite.

Why spend another "typical night out?" Come savor the variety and unique cuisine five restaurants can provide! Book with us TODAY!
